

An Invitation to exercise your journalistic talents!

We are eager to hear what is happening in your part of the world. Please share your news by submitting an article for the Global PIONeer Gazette and the Global Connector and send it to Andie Gordon.

Our goal is to show articles that have a substantive, compelling value for Pass It On Network's audience.

Please see the guidelines for articles by clicking this link:

Guidelines for submission:

- Critical significance of information -- Is the information unique, necessary, important, timely? of specific value to PION readers?
- Reflection of Pass It On's perspectives -- Does it reflect the member's professional and personal voice/ intelligence / authority / creativity / perspectives?
- Universality — Do the specifics have value that would make good sense through global application / knowledge share?
- Stickiness — Does the presentation of the information create a sufficient impact to stimulate PIONeers to read it?
- Call to Action -- Does this material need to be disseminated to PION members, either for organizational reasons or broader, societal reasons?
- Storytelling — Whether the article is about a program, a Liaison, an event, etc., does it tell a tale that will inform and/or motivate? In other words, does it have some useful impact on the PION audience?
- Shorter articles from to 200-300 words
- Longer articles from to 600-900 words
